Wolfe's Schledam Aromatic Schnapps as a medicine.—Among the complaints for which the schnapps has been declared a specific by the eminant physicians who have corresponded with the proprietor, are—dropa, dyspipala, dealify consequent upon long continued sickness and old age, epilops, asthma, gravel, colle affections of the kidneys, and att chronic diseases of the genito urinary apparatus. For these, and many other disorders, it is now prescribed, with great success, by more then three thousand medical practitioners in various parts of the United States.

I beg leave to call the attention of the reader to the following letters from physicians, UnOLPHO WOLFS, Sole importer and manufacter, 18, 20 and 21 Beaver st.

Sole importer and manufacter, 18, 20 and 22 Beaver at.

Dr. Cock, a highly popular and able New York physitan, endorses the usefulners of the schuapps, in the sanexed note, dated Sept. 23, 1852;—

Mr. U. WOLFE—Having used the bottle of schuapps you were so kind as to send me for trial, and finding its eardal, you will oblige me by forwarding two more botlies. If there is an agency in this part of the city to shich you can refer me, it will be a satisfaction.

Dr. D. Calkins, town physician and surgeon, at Lyme, tomecticut, says, in a letter dated October 14, 1852;—
1 consider your Schiedam schmapps a superior article, not one that will not come short of our highest expectalens. It is an article the medical fraternity have long wanted. I have used it so far with every apparent suctions. It is an article the medical fraternity have long

S. RUSSEL CHILLIS, M. D.

From Dr. S. F. Forbes, Tolede, O., Aug. 13, 1853.

The frequent notices of the Schiedam Schnapps, both by the profession and the press, had induced the desire of testing the efficacy of this preparation of gin before I received your note. I trust test it will fulfil the expectations of the most sanguine, and prove both a blessing and a profit to suffering humanity.

Dr. Charles A. Leas, Commissioner of Health, Baltimore, writes as follows in relation to the value of schnapps as a remedy in chronic catarrhal compasints, &c. The letter is dated July 27, 1853.

I take great pleasure in bearing highly creditable testimosy to its efficacy as a remedial agent in the diseases for which you recommend it. Having a natural tendency to the muccus surfaces, with a alight degree of stimulation, I regard it as one of the most important remediant innor, argard it as one of the most important remediant innormal programment of the surface in the formic catarrhal affections, particularly those of the genito-urineary apparatus. With much respect, your obedients-cryant,

CHARLES A. LEAS, M. D.

From Dr. C. L. Leonard, Louisville, Ky., Sept. 1, 1852: I well know the difficulty of obtaining genuine unadulemated spirituous liquors of any kind for medical purposes, and therefore rejoice at any attempt to render certain the purity of these articles, and at the same time to improve the medicinal properties. Perhaps in no article is this improvement more desirable than in Holland gin. We frequently fall to prescribe it where it might be useful, having no faith in obtaining a genuine article, and of course anticipating an benefit from the use of an inferior one. I shall take great pleasure in receiving a bottle for your schnapps, and hope it may prove a

Dr. C. Robbins, of Boston, celebrated for his cure of spilepsy, cholers, &c., complains of the great difficulty of procuring a pure Holland gin, and speaks of the schiedam schnapps as follows under date of October 5, Schiedam schnapps as follows under date of October 5, 1832:—

I have comme need your articles in four cases—two in Connecticut and one in Vermont, and one in Rhode Island. An article of this character is much needed. I have been unable to find a substitute in the materia medica for pure Holland gin. Yours, C. ROBBINS.
Mr. Udolphe Wolfe, 22 Beaver street, N. Y.—Dear Sir: Last season the writer received, through your agent in this city, a bottle of your Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, and since that period has prescribed the same in certain forms of urinary complaints; also in cases of debilly in aged persons. So far the Schnapps has been of much benefit to those using it. * * * * In conclusion, where a diuretic and stimulant is required I should use the Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps. Thanking you for your kindness, I am respectfully, yours, A. D. CHALONER, M. D., 189 South Eighth street. The subjoined letter from Dr. Paine, of Manchester, New Hampshire, relates to one of the most valuable madicinal properties possessed by the Aromatic Schnapps, and shows that it acts as a specific in a very painful direase—the grave!—

and shows that it acts as a specific in a very painful disease—the gravel:—

Mr. Wolfe—Fermit me to address you a few lines, which you are at liberty to use if you thick proper, in respect to your medicine, called Schiedam Schnapps. I have had a very obstinate case of gravel and atone of some five years' standing, causing very acute psin in every attempt to urinate. After using many remidies, without much relief, I was induced to try a bottle of your medicine. In the course of three days it proved effectual, dieloging large pieces of stone, some of which were as large as a marrowfat pea. I continued the cordial, according to directions, and the patient continued to gain, and is fast recovering. I think a medicine of so much value in so distressing a complaint should be known to the pablic and the world at large. And I, for one, must give it my approbation and signature.

From Dr. John S. Reese, chemist, Battimore, Md., Sepsember, 15, 1852:—
A number of our physicians are ordering the article, and everal have aiready prescribed it. Persons to whom have sold it speak very highly of its qualities. A gentleman if my own personal acquaintance, having suffered greaty with an affection of the kidneys and bladder, took two bottles, and a subsequently passed a stone of considerable potales.

Dr. R. L. Hinckly, of East Boston, August 11, 1852,

Dr. J. B. Ribble, Drakesville, N. J., in January, 1853, writes as follows:—
So great has been the difficulty with me to produce a pure article of gin, and so often have I been disappointed that I have almost entirely ceased to prescribe gin for any complaint, and have nearly despaired of being able to do it with better success, unless yours is what you claim for it; if so, you will have conferred about on the practitioners in this country, that, I am sure, they will not be slow to acknowledge.

From Dr. J. Hilton, New York, July 15, 1852:—
I take this early opportunity to express my extreme practiculars in this country, that, I am sure, they will not be slow to acknowledge.

From Dr. J. Hillon, New York, July 15, 1852:—
I take this early opportunity to express my extreme gratification that the medical profession can now obtain an article so generally beneficial to the various forms of dropsy. For many years I have been in the liabit of prescribing it, in that, as well as many other affections, and shall take an early opportunity to test the virtues of your Schespps.

From H. A. Prout, M. D., St. Louis, June 6, 1853:—
Having scen your advertisement of a pure Holland gin, worthy the confidence of physicians, I write to you with a view of procuring a sample of it. In dropsical affections, and in some icross of renal disease, its efficacy has long been acknowledged, and it has only falten into disease because of the compounds sold under the name of Holland gin. I want to use it at present in colic, as it is an excellent remedy in infantile colic, and I cannot procure a compound to be relied on.

From Ir. T. B. Adams, Boston, August 6, 1853:—
A patient of mine is now suffering under complaints which I have thought might be relieved by something of this sort; but we cannot obtain the right article here. Send me a bottle of your schnappe.

1822—

I have often felt the accessity of procuring a pure Helland gin for medical purposes. The course you have queried in recommending your Aromatis Schiedam schapps to the profession meets my hearty approbation.
I have no objection to giving it a trial in my practice.
From A. S. Butler, Sudbury, Vt., Aug. 10, 1852—
Your circular recommending the Aromatic Schiedam Schiapps as a medicines, in various abnormal conditions of the system, meets my cordinal acceptance, knowing that various deleterious compounds are and have been sold under the name of gir, and the want of an article that physicians may rely upon induces me to answer the intimation referred to in your circular.
From Dr. John John Inn. Boston, Aug. 20, 1882—I am gratified to icorn that there is one piace where pure gin can be obtained. I have had much trouble to obtain pure liquor of any kind, and especially of fiolland gin.
In conclusion, I beg leave to say, the word "schnapps" belongs exclusively to my medicinal beverage—all others are counterfeit.

Hev. Henry Ward Beecher's Opinion of Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schinapps:

[From the independent, Nov. 11, 1852.]

And now, if our readers would like a sober word in the way of our honest opinion, we would say that we regard this as about the most impudent attempt of a gin seller, tricked up with a medical endorsement, to get the patronage of that large class of orphan drinkers, made by the Maine Law, who desire to have all the benefits of drinking, with all the respectability of temperance; and in. Wolfe is engaged in that interesting game long known under the very homely phrase of "whipping the devil around the stump."

Dr. B. BRANDRETH.—From the great use of tobacty, I became so dehilitated, about eight years ago, that my physicians considered it impossible for me to recover; I was worn down to skin and bones, was afflicted with chronic dyspepsia, and everything I ate disagreed with me; I had constant pain in my chest, my bowels were costive and selfom moved without recourse to medicine, which dehilitated me more and more. In this condition I was recommended to use your "Vegetable Universal Pills." I did so, and gradually became restored to excellent health through their use. They mildly, yet energetically, purged; and after each portion I seemed endowed with new life. My original volunt health was soon restored, an', I thank God, I am now a vigorous man of fifty-six. But for your pills, I very believe I should be now in my grave. I shall be pleased to see any any one at my store, acd will state further particulars. I am, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

STARTLING EXPOSITION OF AMERICAN SOCIETY STANHOPE BURLEIGH:

Nearly ready.

STANHOPE BURLEIGH:
THE JISTER SOUR MOSES.

A NOVER. BY HEESE DUE.

In one slegant 12mo volume of 440 pages, artistically illustrated with fine tinted engravings. Price $1. The undersigned take pleasure in announcing that they will shortly use the above brillmant and powerfully written American remainee, which they feel justiged in believing is destined to have a circulation and influence throughout this country unparalleled in the history of American authorship. The American Republic is now deeply skirred by one all-pervading sentiment. It is the broadest, the deepest, and the intensest feeling which has existed in this country since the great struggle for independence. How leng the fervor of this sentiment may last, or what may be its results, it is not for us to determine; but it can hardly be denied that the times are ripe for a great book, when shall go forth to every part of the country, embodying the principles and breating the spirit that is sweeping all party lines away, and rolling the wave of patrictic her from ocean to ocean. The work has been prepared expressly to meet the times, and it will go forth with the sanction and hearty approval of every man in that vast army of Americans who believes and feels that the reign of Jesnitism and priestersit, foreign influence and American demagogues, ought to cease. It delineates, with graphic power, the subtle intrigues of the Jesuits in America, in our homes, in society, in politics, and in government. The corrupting and degrading intrigues of unpr neipled political demagogues, of all parties, are brought into full view, under the intolerable blaze of light; while the artist developments of the plot impart to the work the most brillant characteristics of the finest romanoes. It has been unjected to the severest and most enlightened criticism; and several of our most accomplished etcolars, who have road the manuscript with care, have all concurred in the opinion that it as the most dramatic and powerful novel that has been written in this count promptly filed; and in every the order of reception. STRINGER & TOWNSEND, Publishers, 222 Broadway, New Yor
